Dear Children or Sons of Disobedience
By: Robert Orren

"Behold what manner of love the Father has bestowed on us, that we should be called children of God!..." 1 John 3:1

As you watch small children, you will notice that many of them try to be like their parents. They will try to dress like Mom or walk and talk like Dad. They even try to imitate them in their hobbies, such as hunting or sports. But as they get older, many of them try to be as different as possible from these same parents. The worst case scenario is when rebellion sets in.

Paul talks about two types of children of God in Ephesians chapter 5. He mentions dear children (or beloved children) and sons of disobedience. Reading through Ephesians 5:1-10, you will see that the dear children are imitators of their Father, but the children of disobedience do not resemble Him at all.

Now notice that the sons of disobedience are the ones who receive the wrath of God (vs 6). It is because of the behavior listed in the previous verses.

But weren't we all at one point disobedient children? Children of light were once children of darkness (vs 8). But we have changed—and He changed us!

As children of God, we should always strive to please our Father (vs 10). We can do so by imitating Him. So instead of putting on Mom's shoes or Dad's boots, put on Christ and walk like Him.

Have a great week!
